

(xiv) Details in respect of the information, available to or held by NIUA reduced in an electronic form

The National Institute of Urban Affairs has been hosting its own website since 2000 (www.niua.org). Information on the website is updated as and when required.

The website provides information about the Institute and its activities categorized under the following heads:

About NIUA: gives a brief introduction about NIUA, its functions and main activities, and contact details.

Governing Council: gives the names and addresses of all the Governing Council members.

Faculty: lists NIUA's faculty along with a brief profile of each.

Activities: gives information about NIUA's activities under various research heads.

Publication: all issues of the Institute's newsletter Urban Finance from December 2001 onwards, are available in electronic form. A classified list of all research reports and the price of each report is also given.

Research: provides information on thrust areas of the Institute's research with a brief description of each.

Training: provides information on the various training activities of the Institute..

Database: more than 80 selected tables from the Institute's publication Handbook of Statistics 2000 are available online.

CBIS: provides information on the Community Based Information System project undertaken by the Institute.